NAME HEDGES FOR GOVERNOR IN N. Y.

The Republicans Select Candidate at Saratoga After Three Ballots.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 28.—John E. Hedges of New York was nominated as Republican candidate for governor of New York yesterday. Three ballots were taken.

Hedges led from the first, and when the third ballot showed him steadily gaining strength the delegates flocked to him so fast that the tally clerk could not keep the record. Before the vote could be announced, the motion to make the nomination unanimous was put and carried with a roar of enthusiasm.

The delegates picked Hedges from a list of eleven candidates placed before them.

James W. Wadsworth, Jr., was named for lieutenant-governor.

Those formally placed in nomination for governor were: former Speaker James W. Wadsworth, Jr., of Genesee, Job E. Hedges of New York, William H. Daniels of Buffalo, former Congressman William S. Bennett of New York, Patrick W. Cullinan of Oswego, former state excise commissioner, and Senator Edgar T. Brackett of Saratoga, permanent chairman of the convention.

Others not nominated who received votes were Senator Harvey D. Hinman of Binghamton, former State Tax Commissioner E. E. Woodbury of Jamestown, District Attorney Charles E. Whitman of New York, and former Mayor Charles A. Schieren of Brooklyn.

There was fruitless effort to combine outside the convention hall upon a man who might get enough votes to nominate on the first ballot.

ROSENTHAL'S FIRST
WIFE QUEERLY ILL

Taken to the Hospital, Doctors Suspect an Attempt to Poison Her.

New York, Sept. 28.—Detectives attached to the district attorney's office yesterday were investigating the strange illness of Dora Gilbert, first wife of the murdered gambler, Herman Rosenthal, who declared that somebody attempted to kill her by poisoning.

In Bellevue hospital, where Mrs. Gilbert was taken, doctors worked hard to save her. The physicians said it looked like a case of knockout drops. The woman was so dazed and in such agony that she could give no coherent account of her illness prior to her attack on October 1. She was in bed when her family physician found her, semi-conscious.

Just before Rosenthal was assassinated, Jack Rose, Harry Vallon and Sam Schepps called on Dora Gilbert and obtained her signature to an affidavit purporting to tell the story of her life with Rosenthal. The woman told the district attorney that one of the three, in her presence, old Police Lieutenant Becker over the telephone that "we have got what you want."

He drew a revolver and shot her and a second barmaid and then rushed to the street. On the way out he shot down two men who tried to stop him and also fired at a third man. He was finally overpowered by a passerby and arrested. One of the barmaids, Miss Tower, died of her wounds.

NEW MOVE BY MURPHY.
An Interesting but Doubtful Rumor That Democrats May Indorse Straus.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 28.—A strange story reached Saratoga from New York overnight, to the effect that Charles P. Murphy, boss of Tammany hall, was thinking of endorsing Oscar S. Straus and thereby saving part of the Democratic ticket in November by capturing the bulk of the Jew vote. The story aroused some interest, but is not generally credited as authoritative.

Governor Dix in New York City commented yesterday on the criticism of his administration by the Republican state convention at Saratoga. "The Democratic administration speaks for itself," he said. The governor said he would not see Charles P. Murphy before leaving for Albany yesterday afternoon.

GIBSON PROSECUTION CONFIDENT.
New Witnesses Will Strengthen Case,
It Is Declared.

New York, Sept. 28.—In answer to the declaration of lawyers for Burton W. Gibson, charged with the murder of Mrs. Rosa Szabo, that the case of the prosecution would fall to pieces because of various stories told by witnesses of the tragedy, it was said Thursday at the Austro-Hungarian consulate that no diversity of testimony would appear when the persons subpoenaed by District Attorney Rogers of Orange county appear on the stand at Goshen, on Monday, when the hearing begins. New witnesses not yet revealed would materially strengthen the case, it was said, as well as facts not yet made public, which many witnesses whose names have already been mentioned will testify to on the witness stand. A fourth eye-witness to the occurrences at the time of Mrs. Szabo's death was found Thursday.

Boston, Sept. 28.—An investigation of the death of John Remi, who was killed by a bayonet thrust during the strike in Lawrence last winter, has been ordered by Governor Foss. The governor acted upon the petition of Remi's mother and other relatives.

The petition stated that efforts had been made to secure the name of the militiaman whose bayonet was responsible for Remi's death but that the town of Lawrence, in charge of the militia at Lawrence, had declined to furnish it.

Attorneys representing the Remi family have furnished the governor with affidavits from four persons who are said to have witnessed the affair.

STRIKE NOT
SANCTIONEDDeclare Leaders Of Industrial
Workers at Lawrence

BUT 8,000 STILL REMAIN OUT

A Meeting Will Be Held This Afternoon
to Decide Whether to Continue or Terminate the Strike—Several Meetings
Voted Last Night to Resume.

Lawrence, Mass., Sept. 28.—The question of terminating or continuing the strike of the textile operatives, which was called Thursday as a protest against the imprisonment of Etor and Giovannitti, is expected to be settled at a mass meeting on the Lawrence common this afternoon. The strike continued today despite the vote taken to return by the operatives at several meetings held last night.

It was estimated this morning that 8,000 operatives were idle. There was no trouble when the mill gates were opened and the strikers posted no pickets. The leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World advocate return to work, saying that the strike demonstration was a sufficient protest against the confinement of Etor and Giovannitti. The officials of the mills express their intention of opening all the mills next Monday and the question of operating them will be determined by the number of operatives returning.

Leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World renewed their assertion that the strike was not sanctioned, was unauthorized and was without a leader.

"We are naturally unable to control the people," said William Yates of New Bedford, national secretary of the textile branch of the Industrial Workers of the World. "They broke away from us completely and left their work against our advice. We hoped they would heed the message sent from jail by Etor and Giovannitti urging them not to strike."

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"A Night Out" Next Wednesday and
"Bought and Paid For" Friday.

In these days of ragtime musical shows it is a real pleasure to witness a genuine comedy, and all those who attend the opera house next Wednesday, Oct. 2nd, will not be slow to give expression to their appreciation. "A Night Out" gives Miss Robson innumerable opportunities to display her talent for comedy. Miss Robson portrays the role of "Grammum," a sprightly lady who refuses to grow old and looks younger than her daughter, who is the mother of two young men. Grammum by wiles seduces to women, induces the boys to take her for "a night out." The night is left to the imagination, but Grammum's appearance in the morning when the boys bring her home speaks volumes. The complications that ensue from their efforts to hide the fact that they were present when the cafe was raided by the police cause no end of fun and following Miss Robson's performance of the comedy the loss and recovery of her gray puffs is a sure cure for the blues. Tickets Monday morning at nine o'clock.

TEACHERS AND PUBLIC
BECOME ACQUAINTED

Through Reception Arranged by Barre
School Commissioners, About 400
People Being in Attendance.

The public reception tendered in Howland hall last evening to the teachers of the high and graded schools of the public was attended by nearly 400 persons, including parents of many students, representatives of the teachers' corps in other towns, and union school superintendents from districts near by. The get-together occasion for the teachers and people of the city was significantly successful, and the school commissioners who devised plans for the affair may well feel satisfied that their idea of acquainting the teachers' staff with the fathers and mothers of many students was so happily realized.

Nearly all of the city teachers, numbering over sixty, were present, as well as several teachers from Barre Town, Superintendent George J. Seager of the Town schools, and Superintendent N. N. Love of the union school district of Williamstown and Chelsea. The reception began at 8 o'clock, and after the formalities of receiving were over, a social hour was in order until 10 o'clock. Bruce's orchestra was in attendance and furnished excellent music during the evening.

In the receiving line were Superintendent E. M. Benson and Mrs. Benson, Principal C. H. White of Spaulding high school and Mrs. White, Secretary L. R. Hutchinson of the school commission and Mrs. Hutchinson, and Commissioner H. G. Woodruff and Mrs. Woodruff. During the hour between 8 and 9 o'clock, nearly 350 people were escorted along the line. The committee of introduction consisted of the following: Dr. J. W. Jackson and John Stephen of the school commission, C. N. Barber, Jr., Mrs. Edwin Keast, Mrs. Henry H. Jackson, Miss Eva-Annie Bisbee, and Miss Mary McDonald, of the Spaulding Alumni association.

The later hours of the reception were given over to informal introductions and plenty of opportunities were given for parents to meet and converse with the teachers of their children. Dainty refreshments of punch and wafers were served during this time. Miss Harriet Houston and Miss Edith Gordon poured and Miss Florence Granger and Miss Glenora Gould assisted. All are students at the high school.

The affair was carried out in charge of a committee consisting of Dr. J. W. Jackson, H. G. Woodruff and Alexander Gordon, members of the school commission. Dr. Jackson acted as master of ceremonies.

There were many expressions of appreciation by townspeople and teachers for the opportunity, afforded through the thoughtfulness of the school commission, to get acquainted, and it was believed by all that the result would be beneficial to the schools through closer relations between parents and teachers.

ALIENATION TESTIMONY FINISHED.
Cross Examination Brought Out New Points—Case to Jury To-day.

Testimony in the Morse alienation case in Washington county court was completed yesterday; most of the time being given over to rebuttal testimony by both sides. Mrs. Morse stated that Mr. Morse took a woman to his home to visit of whom she did not approve, and several Montpelier people testified concerning this woman, who is said to live in Montpelier at the present time.

Morse was sent to the state hospital at Waterbury for observation at the time he was arrested for forgery, and while there suffered from epileptic fits, according to his testimony. He has had none since he left the hospital, however, he testified, but denied that he had been having them because after he left they would have no effect on the case against him. He also stated that he had told different ones that he and Otis H. Lawrence, the defendant, were like brothers, and that he did think so until about the time Mrs. Morse left him, when he became convinced something was wrong.

Lawyer M. G. Morse began his argument for the plaintiff late in the afternoon.
